JUBILANT JANUARY

VISITS, OUTINGS AND TRIPS

Week 1

JJ 02 Royal Exhibition Building Dome Promenade tour

'An icon of Melbourne's history has opened its doors to a unique view unseen for 100 years.'

The Royal Exhibition Building dome

The Royal Exhibition Building was built for the 1880 Melbourne International Exhibition. As a key attraction for the exhibition, the Dome Promenade provided visitors a unique opportunity to overlook the gardens and view the Melbourne skyline.

Once again we are able to experience these spectacular views, along with an exhibition that explores the building's significant history and varied uses over time.

Tuesday 10 am – 12 noon

10 January

Cost $23 (seniors) Payment required at enrolment

Places 10

JJ 03 Guided tour of Capitol Theatre and lunch at Young & Jackson's?

A chance to find out more about the fascinating history and unique architecture of the Capitol Theatre, in Swanston Street. Originally designed by celebrated architects Walter Burley Griffin and Marion Mahony Griffin, the Capitol is considered their greatest interior design work.

The renovated interior of the Capitol Theatre

The guided tour will look at the Capitol's journey over the last century from hippodrome to picture palace to rock venue to finally becoming a world-class musical theatre venue.

We shall book to have lunch in the Dining Room at Young & Jackson's (under the portrait of Chloe) for those wishing to share this.

Wednesday 10 30 am – 12 noon 11 January

Cost Visit to the Capitol $25 (includes coffee) (seniors) Payment required at enrolment

Lunch at Young & Jackson's $35 per head, fixed price menu, pay on the day

Places 20 (10 places only booked for lunch)

Week 2

JJ 06 Visit to Russian Orthodox Church in East Brunswick plus lunch at Ceres Environment Park

We shall visit this extraordinary cathedral in East Brunswick and meet with Father Francis Karipoff who will tell us about the buildings, the services, the congregation, the special celebrations. He will then lead us on a tour of the church.

Then we shall walk a very short distance along the Merri Creek to Ceres, the Community Environment Park, where we can purchase lunch at the Bakery or in the Ceres Café.

Tuesday 10 am - 2 pm 17 January
Cost Tour of church free; lunch at own cost
Places 15
1-7 Albion Street, East Brunswick (96 tram advised)

JJ 07 Visit to the Johnston Collection in East Melbourne, with a guided tour of Splendid: Roger Brookes Silver collection

Part of the Roger Brookes silver collection

Located in East Melbourne, the Johnston Collection is the legacy of the late WR Johnston, an antiques dealer with a remarkable eye for beauty. An independent not-for-profit house-museum, the Johnston Collection features an astonishing array of fine and decorative arts from the Georgian, Regency and Louis XV periods.

The Collection curates a regular program of exhibitions. We will be participating in a guided tour of the current exhibition which features the extensive and beautifully presented antique silver collection of Roger Brookes.

Wednesday 9 30 am - 12 noon 18 January
Cost $23 (group rate) (payment required at enrolment)
Places 8
Meet at Pullman Hotel, Wellington Parade, for courtesy bus to Johnston Collection

Week 3

JJ 13 Visit to Heide Museum of Modern Art, for Barbara Hepworth exhibition In Equilibrium

The doyenne of modernist sculpture, Barbara Hepworth was one of the leading British artists of her generation and the first woman sculptor to achieve international recognition.

Mother and child sculpture

This first exhibition of her work in Australia, Barbara Hepworth: In Equilibrium brings together more than forty works from prestigious international and national collections, including sculptures in stone, wood, bronze and other metals and a select group of paintings.

Payment of $22 covers entry to any of the exhibitions of the Museum plus a guided tour of the Barbara Hepworth exhibition.

Tuesday 10 30 am – 3 30 pm

24 January
